HKU Mentorship Programme (Overseas)

Teamwork • Trust • Transformation

since 2003
Aims:

• To create a supportive relationship between Mentors and Mentees

• To assist mentees in their adaptation to a new environment

• To guide a mentee’s personal development

• For students who will be on exchange for at least one semester
Having alumni and friends as Mentors will enrich your overseas learning experience, expand your knowledge and personal network in the host country.

When you meet your Mentor...
Have individual or group meetings. Even your mentor is not living close to you, make plan to visit him/her ... it could be a very rewarding experience.
Learn about the local culture and community.
Join HKU Overseas Alumni Chapters’ gatherings

“Fall Colour Hiking in Ontario, Canada”
“The exchange students this past semester have certainly experienced a lot - one of the most severe winters we have had, the Marathon bombings, and closing down of Cambridge and neighbouring towns.”...Professor Siu Sau Fong
Be involved in family gatherings
• Contact your Mentor once you received details on your mentor and BEFORE you depart Hong Kong; say Hello when you arrive at your host university. It’s never too early to contact your mentor by email; you may get information on living or transportation.

• Use emails, phone calls, social media, chat apps to keep in contact with your mentor.

• Always reply your Mentor’s emails and return his/her calls.

• Don’t forget to say Good-bye when you leave the country.
Turning the table on the Mentor; Mentees from UC Santa Barbara play host with a 10-course meal for a change for Mentor Mrs Carrie Brown and her husband.
Don’ts

• Be shy to share your feelings and views.

• Take for granted that your Mentor is going to pay for everything, e.g. tickets and alumni lunch with charge.

• Call your Mentor at unreasonable hours.

• Expect your Mentor to take care of your daily life or take care of your friends who did not apply the mentorship programme. If you really need to invite a friend, ASK your mentor first.

• Never give your mentor’s phone number or email address to other exchange students. Respect mentor’s privacy.
Feedback from Mentors

“Before he (mentee) came, he might have very limited knowledge about the living practice, climate, dress and what appliances he had to bring to Toronto. Through emails and long-distance phone calls, the mentee can gather more information to prepare for the trip and feel far more comfortable.”
Feedback from Mentors

“It would be more rewarding if mentees would drop the mentor a note occasionally, just to let us know how he/she is doing. At present, some do, and some don't.”
Feedback from Mentors

“I have had a wonderful time with the Mentees and I hope they feel the same way about me. The programme is a two-way street that benefits both the Mentors and Mentees. I always learn something from them, especially hi-tech stuff.”
Concern from Mentors

“In some cases, I have sent emails but have seldom heard back from my mentees and wondered what had happened to them. It is not right to enrol, taking away resources from their peers and not use them.”
Concern from Mentors

“One student who made an appointment to meet me for the first time. However, she never showed up and did not notify me until I emailed her about the missed appointment. She gave me no reason. An HKU student should be better than that.”

If you decide to withdraw from the exchange programme, you MUST inform OISE and Mentorship Programme Office as soon as possible.

Interview

May 2, 4, 5 and 10 - 12, 2017
Mentorship 2016-17
HKU Mentorship is celebrating its 20th anniversary.
It is time to celebrate two decades of partnership and friendships.

Mentor who shares my thoughts
Shared by Howard Chu Ho Yan

"He shares my thoughts, including the struggles I have in mind. As someone who walked ahead of me, he is able to show me the directions and points to note at each moment."
Outgoing exchange students studying at Host University for at least one semester are invited to join the HKU Mentorship Programme (Overseas).
Outgoing Exchange Students

Each applicant will need to attend an interview session.

It is important for applicants to keep the Programme Facilitator informed of their contact details overseas, including email address and any changes on their schedule for exchange.

Successful applicant/Mentee should submit at least one contact report, together with a photo with mentor, to the Mentorship Facilitator during the exchange.
